1. Background Information

About the school

- 1.1 Alamiyah School is an independent Muslim Montessori co-educational primary school located in Dagenham Essex. The school initially started as a pre-school in September 2011 and registered as an independent school extending its age range from 3 to 9 years in 2017 and 3 to 11 years in 2018. The school operates under the trustees of Alamiyah Educational Foundation which is a UK registered charity. The school's previous inspection was an Ofsted inspection in May 2018. Since the previous inspection the school has appointed a new chair of governors.

What the school seeks to do

- 1.2 The school aims to provide a Montessori approach to learning that promotes a universal love through following the way of the Prophets. Pupils are empowered to find their individual purpose and talents, to build concentration and self-motivation and to become active and independent learners. The school aims to provide a rich and varied curriculum which builds an understanding of the interdependence of everything within the Universe and the importance of becoming custodians in service to God, the Earth and Humanity.

About the pupils

- 1.3 Pupils come from predominantly Muslim backgrounds living in the local area. Assessments used by the school indicate the ability profile of the pupils is broadly average compared to others taking the same test nationally. No pupil in the school has an education, health and care (EHC) plan. The school has identified four pupils as having special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND), which include speech and language, complex social and communication needs and moderate learning difficulties. English is an additional language (EAL) for three pupils, whose needs are supported by their classroom teachers. The curriculum is modified for the one pupil in the school assessed as more able.

2. Regulatory Compliance Inspection

Preface

The Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI) is approved by the Secretary of State to inspect schools which are, or whose heads are, in membership of the associations which form the Independent Schools Council (ISC) and report on the extent to which they meet the Independent School Standards ('the standards') in the Schedule to the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014. Inspections of schools with early years settings not requiring registration also report whether the school complies with key provisions of the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) statutory framework. Additionally, inspections report on the school's accessibility plan under Schedule 10 of the Equality Act 2010 and the ban on corporal punishment under section 548 of the Education Act 1996. Inspections also comment on the progress made to meet any compliance action points set out in the school's most recent statutory inspection.

ISI inspections are also carried out under the arrangements of the ISC Associations for the maintenance and improvement of the quality of their membership.

This is a COMPLIANCE ONLY inspection and as such reports only on the school's compliance with the standards. The standards represent minimum requirements and judgements are given either as met or as not met. All schools are required to meet all the standards applicable to them. Where the minimum requirements are not met, this is clearly indicated and the school is required to take the actions specified.

Inspections do not include matters that are outside of the regulatory framework described above, such as: an exhaustive health and safety audit; compliance with data protection requirements; an in-depth examination of the structural condition of the school, its services or other physical features; contractual arrangements with parents; an investigation of the financial viability of the school or its accounting procedures.

Inspectors may be aware of individual safeguarding concerns, allegations and complaints as part of the inspection process. Such matters will not usually be referred to specifically in published reports in this document but will have been considered by the team in reaching its judgements.
